

HAZARDOUS SMOKE WARNING

Stay Safe During Industrial Fires

HEALTH RISKS

Smoke from industrial fires may contain toxic chemicals such as carbon monoxide, fine particles, and other harmful substances, posing serious health risks, including:

- ⚠️ Difficulty breathing
- 👁️ Eye and throat irritation
- 👂 Headaches / Dizziness
- ❤️ Heart and lung conditions worsened

CALL 000 IN AN EMERGENCY

Call 000 immediately if you or someone else experiences difficulty breathing, chest pain, confusion, or other health emergencies.

- ☑️ Emergency services are on standby to assist.

www.firerescue.com.au

HOW TO STAY SAFE

If you are in an area impacted by hazardous smoke, follow these steps to protect yourself and others:

- ☑️ Close all windows and doors
- ☑️ Stay indoors and avoid outdoor activities
- ☑️ Use a high-quality mask such as an N95 if advised
- ☑️ Follow official updates for warnings and instructions.

